CASE MANAGEMENT TRACK DESIGNATION FORM

Estate of Andrew Good, et al v.
Lancaster County, et al

CIVIL ACTION

NO.

In accordance with the Civil Justice Expense and Delay Reduction Plan of this court, counsel for plaintiff shall complete a Case Management Track Designation Form in all civil cases at the time of filing the complaint and serve a copy on all defendants. (See § 1:03 of the plan set forth on the reverse side of this form.) In the event that a defendant does not agree with the plaintiff regarding said designation, that defendant shall, with its first appearance, submit to the clerk of court and serve on the plaintiff and all other parties, a Case Management Track Designation Form specifying the track to which that defendant believes the case should be assigned.

SELECT ONE OF THE FOLLOWING CASE MANAGEMENT TRACKS:

- (a) Habeas Corpus – Cases brought under 28 U.S.C. § 2241 through § 2255. ()
- (b) Social Security – Cases requesting review of a decision of the Secretary of Health and Human Services denying plaintiff Social Security Benefits. ()
- (c) Arbitration – Cases required to be designated for arbitration under Local Civil Rule 53.2. ()
- (d) Asbestos – Cases involving claims for personal injury or property damage from exposure to asbestos. ()
- (e) Special Management – Cases that do not fall into tracks (a) through (d) that are commonly referred to as complex and that need special or intense management by the court. (See reverse side of this form for a detailed explanation of special management cases.) ()
- (f) Standard Management – Cases that do not fall into any one of the other tracks. (x)

CIVIL ACTION COMPLAINT

I. Parties and Reasons for Jurisdiction.

1. Plaintiff, ESTATE OF ANDREW GOOD (hereinafter “Plaintiff”) is a legal construction as the result of the death of Andrew Good. Plaintiff, KRISTI GOOD is the administrator of the ESTATE OF ANDREW GOOD (hereinafter referred “Plaintiff”).

2. Plaintiff, KRISTI GOOD, the administrator of Andrew Good’s estate and his mother, is next of kin and hereby brings a survival action on her own behalf, in addition to bringing.

3. Defendant, BARBARA RODRIGUEZ-SANTANA was, at all times material hereto, a Deputy Sheriff employed with the Lancaster County Sheriff’s Department (“LCSD”) and was operating individually and in her capacity as a Deputy Sheriff. Plaintiff is suing this Defendant in her individual capacity only.

4. Defendant, CHRISTOPHER LEPLER was, at all times material hereto, the Sheriff of Lancaster County and was operating individually and in his capacity as the Sheriff of Lancaster County. Plaintiff is suing this Defendant in his individual capacity and official capacity.

5. Defendant, GREG STONE was, at all times material hereto, a police officer employed with Akron Borough and was operating individually and in his official capacity as a police officer with Akron Borough. Plaintiff is suing this Defendant in his individual capacity only.

6. Defendant, LANCASTER COUNTY was, at all times material hereto, a municipal entity responsible for the detainer of individuals held on bench warrants and fugitive warrants by and on behalf of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. At all times material hereto Defendant Lancaster County is a state actor under color of state law.

7. Defendant, BOROUGH OF AKRON was, at all times material hereto, a municipal entity responsible for the detainer of individuals held on bench warrants and fugitive warrants by and on behalf of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. At all times material hereto Defendant Borough of Akron is a state actor under color of state law.

8. Defendant, BOROUGH OF EPHRATA was, at all times material hereto, a municipal entity responsible for the detainer of individuals held on bench warrants and fugitive warrants by and on behalf of Lancaster County, Pennsylvania. At all times material hereto Defendant Borough of Ephrata is a state actor under color of state law.

9. Defendant JOHN DOE DEFENDANTS NOS.1-10 are Sheriff Deputies employed by Lancaster County and, at all times material hereto, were operating in their individual capacities under color of state law. These John Doe Defendants are currently unknown to Plaintiff but deployed tasers upon the body of Andrew Good on the date of his death. Demand is made on Defendants to identify these individuals.

10. DEFENDANT JOHN DOE DEFENDANTS NOS. 11-22 are police officers employed by Defendant, Akron Borough and, at all times material hereto, were operating in their individual capacities under color of state law. These John Doe Defendants are currently unknown to Plaintiff but deployed tasers upon the body of Andrew Good on the date of his death. Demand is made on Defendants to identify these individuals.

11. DEFENDANT JOHN DOE DEFENDANTS NOS. 21-30 are police officers employed by Defendant, Borough of Ephrata and, at all times material hereto, were operating in their individual capacities under color of state law. These John Doe Defendants are currently unknown to Plaintiff but deployed tasers upon the body of Andrew Good on the date of his death. Demand is made on Defendants to identify these individuals.

12. At all times material hereto, all Defendants named above are acting together, in concert, by and on each other's behalf, were acting under color of state law and/or employees within the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

13. At all times, Defendants acted under color of state law and all individual defendants are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

14. Jurisdiction is conferred by 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1343.

15. Supplemental jurisdiction over the Plaintiff's state law claims is conferred pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1367.

16. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(1) and (b)(2), venue is properly laid in this district because Defendants are located in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, and because a substantial part of the acts and/or omissions giving rise to the claims set forth herein occurred in this judicial district.

II. Operative Facts.

17. At all times material hereto, ANDREW GOOD was a person suffering from an opioid addiction.

18. At all times material hereto, Defendants knew or otherwise had notice of his opioid addiction due to his past criminal history and current fugitive status as of April 14, 2018.

19. On or about April 14, 2018, Defendants executed a warrant for Mr. Andrew Good's arrest at or near his house in Akron Borough.

20. During his arrest of April 14, 2018, Plaintiff was tased and/or shoved and held upon the ground without good reason or lawful justification.

21. Officer Rodgers (first name unknown) of Defendant Borough of Akron, arrested Plaintiff and transported Plaintiff to Wellspan Ephrata Community Hospital for treatment for injuries sustained during the arrest.

22. After being treated at the hospital, Mr. Good was placed into the custody of Defendant, Barbara Rodriguez-Santana and Defendant Lancaster County Sheriff Department.

23. Defendant Santana waiting with Mr. Good at Ephrata Community Hospital for medical treatment as a result of injuries he sustained during his apprehension earlier that day by Defendants.

24. Plaintiff, while shackled, attempted to escape custody by running out of the parking lot of the hospital.

25. Defendant Santana deployed her taser multiple times despite knowledge that Andrew Good was an opioid addict.

26. Plaintiff ran towards Cocalico Creek and upon information and belief entered the water whereby he was tased multiple times by Defendant Santana and other John Doe Defendants while in the creek.

27. Upon information and belief, Mr. Good was tased causing him to fall unconscious in the creek while shackled where he then drowned.

28. Defendant recklessly and willfully disregarded Plaintiff's rights by deploying a taser upon him with knowledge that he was shackled, in the water, and was an opioid addict.

29. The use of the taser by Defendants under these circumstances created a heightened and unreasonable risk to the decedent as he was tased in the chest area, while shackled, on or in the Cocalico Creek.

30. At all times material hereto, Defendants set forth and establish a “Conducted Electronic Weapon” policy governing the use of tasers.

31. The policy is established by Defendants Lancaster County, Akron Borough, Borough of Ephrata, and Leppler.

32. The Conducted Electronic Weapon policy is deficient in addressing the aforementioned risks concerning deployment.

33. As a direct and proximate result of the Defendants’ deliberate indifference to the Plaintiff being an opioid addict, as well as being in a body of navigable water yet tasing him, Plaintiff sustained death, grievous bodily injury, great personal injury, pain and suffering and emotional distress.

34. At all times material, the Corrections Officers Defendants intentionally and willfully disregarded Plaintiff’s complaints that he needed medical treatment.

35. As set forth above, the Defendants deliberately and willfully ignored the danger posed deploying tasers upon the body of Andrew Good described above which directly and proximately caused Plaintiff’s injuries.

36. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants’ aforementioned conduct, Plaintiffs sustained great personal injury, economic loss, emotional distress, pain and suffering and other damages as set forth below.

III. Causes of Action.

COUNT I – 8th AMENDMENT—DELIBERATE INDIFFERENCE (42 U.S.C.A. § 1983 et seq) (Plaintiff v. Defendants)

37. Plaintiff incorporates paragraphs 1-36 as if fully set forth at length herein.

38. At all times described above, Defendants were acting under color of state law.

39. As described above, Defendants were provided specific knowledge of the heightened risk of deployment of the taser upon Plaintiff.

40. Despite this heightened risk, Defendants deployed the taser upon Plaintiff.

41. Defendants could have used a lesser degree of force in apprehending Plaintiff.

42. Defendants knew or should have known of Plaintiff's addiction and drug abuse issues, as well as his restraint at the time of the tasing and their disregard for Plaintiff's health and safety by deploying the taser resulted in Plaintiff's death and damages as set forth below.

43. Defendants failed to intervene to protect Plaintiff from drowning.

44. Defendants have a duty to ensure Plaintiff safety and security as well as the proper treatment of inmates. Defendants' breach of this duty makes them liable for Plaintiff's damages.

45. As a proximate result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiff sustained significant damages, including but not limited to: personal injury, death, future lost earning capacity, lost opportunity, personal injury, as well as emotional distress, mental anguish, pain and suffering and consequential damages.

46. As a result of the conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff hereby demands punitive damages.

47. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §1983, Plaintiff demands attorneys fees and court costs.

COUNT II –CRUEL AND INHUMANE TREATMENT
(Pennsylvania Constitution and State Law Claims)
(Plaintiff v. Defendants)

48. Plaintiff incorporates paragraphs 1-47 as if fully set forth at length herein.

49. At all times described above, Defendants were acting under color of state law.

50. As described above, Defendants willfully and deliberately ignored Plaintiff's addiction and restraint.

51. As described above, Defendants' willful disregard for Plaintiff's addiction, drug abuse and restraint posed an unreasonable risk to Plaintiff's health and well-being.

52. As a proximate result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiff sustained significant damages, including but not limited to: personal injury, death, future lost earning capacity, lost opportunity, as well as emotional distress, mental anguish, pain and suffering and consequential damages.

53. As a result of the conduct of Defendants Plaintiff hereby demands punitive damages.

54. Plaintiff demands attorneys fees and court costs.

COUNT III —4th AMENDMENT—EXCESSIVE FORCE
(42 U.S.C.A. § 1983 et seq)

55. Plaintiff incorporates paragraphs 1-54 as if fully set forth at length herein.

56. At all times material hereto, Defendants were acting under color of state law.

57. As described above, Defendants intentionally applied an unreasonable and excessive level of force towards Plaintiff, and exercised such force with no other lawful purpose or justification.

58. As a proximate result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiff sustained significant damages, including but not limited to: personal injury, death, future lost earning capacity, lost opportunity, as well as emotional distress, mental anguish, pain and suffering and consequential damages.

59. As a result of the conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff hereby demands punitive damages.

60. Plaintiff demands attorneys fees and court costs.

COUNT IV —MONELL CLAIM
(42 U.S.C.A. § 1983 et seq)

61. Plaintiff incorporates paragraphs 1-60 as if fully set forth at length herein.

62. At all times material hereto, Defendants instituted policies and procedures with indifference to the constitutional rights of the inmates in their custody or control, including, but not limited to Plaintiff.

63. Those policies and procedures include the Conducted Electronic Device policy that related to the use of tasers by Sheriffs and officers attempting to apprehend the Plaintiff.

64. As a proximate result of Defendants' policies and procedures, Plaintiff sustained significant damages, including but not limited to: economic loss, future lost earning capacity, lost opportunity, as well as personal injury, death, emotional distress, mental anguish, pain and suffering and consequential damages.

65. As a result of the conduct of Defendants' owners/management, Plaintiff hereby demands punitive damages.

66. Plaintiff demands attorneys fees and court costs.

IV. Relief Requested.

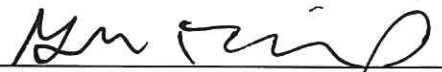

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs The Estate of Andrew Good and Kristi Good demand judgment in their favor and against Defendants jointly and severally, in an amount in excess of $1,500,000.00 together with:

A. Compensatory damages, including but not limited to: personal injury damages, wrongful death, lost economic opportunity, lost future earning capacity, injury to reputation, mental and emotional distress, pain and suffering; deprivation of his life liberty and property interests,

- B. Punitive damages;
- C. Attorneys fees and costs of suit;
- D. Interest, delay damages; and,
- E. Any other further relief this Court deems just proper and equitable.
